Reminder EASS 2024 - Call for Abstracts

We happily invite (or else remind) you to present your scientific research at the 20th European Conference for the Sociology of Sport. The conference is going to take place from 4 – 7th of June 2024 in the lovely city of Madrid, Spain. (If you have already registered and submitted you can ignore this email.)

The aim of the EASS Conference is to build a platform to share the latest research in the field of sport sociology. European societies, organizations and individuals have all responded differently on challenges like the global pandemic, sedentary lifestyles, public physical and mental health issues... only to name a few. During this conference participants get the chance to talk about these important topics and to create concepts how our society can move on well following the ethics of sustainability and responsibility.

Keydates to remember:

- Paper Submission Closes: 6th February 2024
- Review and Decisions Process Concludes: 1st March 2024
- Presenting Authors Latest Registration: 11th April 2024

The Theme will be: “Sport, Democracy Inequality and Beyond”

Submitting is easy! Just follow our handy Submission Guidelines below where you can find all important information!
